Firefinch values the differences between its people and the contribution these differences make to the Group.

3 Achieving diversity

Personnel are expected to contribute to ensuring that the work environment is free from discrimination, harassment, vilification and victimisation and Firefinch's board and management will ensure that complainants or reports of this type of behaviour are treated seriously, confidentially, and sympathetically by the Group. Personnel should demonstrate respect of others, consideration for the cultural and social differences of the people with whom they work, communicate with others politely and respectfully and raise any diversity concerns with their manager or supervisor.

Firefinch will encourage an awareness in all Personnel of their rights and responsibilities with regard to fairness, equity and respect for all aspects of diversity.

3.2 Recruitment and management of a diverse workforce

The Group will recruit and manage a diverse and skilled workforce on the basis of an individual's competence and performance, and recognising the importance of having the right person for the right job. The Group will ensure the workforce best represents the talent available in the communities in which The Group's assets are located and its Personnel reside.

3.3 Recruitment and selection practices

The Group will ensure appropriate recruitment and selection practices are used when hiring new staff, including Board members, so that a diverse range of candidates are considered and that there are no conscious or unconscious biases that may discriminate against certain candidates. Job specifications, advertisements, application forms and contracts will not contain any direct or inferred discrimination. Firefinch may engage professional consultants to assist in the recruitment and selection process to ensure a diverse range of candidates are considered.

3.4 Training and development programs

The Group's board of directors (Board) will consider training and executive mentoring programs to assist in the development of a broader and more diverse pool and skilled and experienced employees and that will, over time, prepare them for senior management and Board positions.

3.5 Flexible working practices

The Group recognises that employees (male and female) at all levels may have domestic responsibilities and will consider flexible work practices that will assist them to meet those responsibilities.

3.6 Career progression

The Group will foster individual career development and make decisions on selection and promotion on the basis of performance, skill and merit, recognising the importance of having the right person for the right job.

3.7 Measurable objectives
